Hi Ralph

We have some options for you...

1. Thursday 14 June 3:15-4:45pm (Music Extension class time that the rest of the music class can join)
2. Monday 18 June 11:20-12:10 (could be interrupted)
3. Wednesday 20 June 3:30-5:30 (normal Wind Symphony rehearsal that other students could attend)

Hope one of these works for you.

Rachel

HI Rachel,

It was good to talk about the whole project yesterday.

I hope the young percussionist comes on board. It would be good to have a little help up there.

I have two things I would like to ask of you:

- 1 When can I visit to 'be in the school' and maybe meet the band and the 12th grade class.
- 2 Please don't tell others about the price I quoted. Because it's you and a local Christian school I have adjusted what it would cost. That's between you and me.

I am very excited about it and I would love to meet the students and share some of their thoughts too. What do you think?

Lovely to meet Cleo too. Thank for her input yesterday, it was good to hear her ideas too.

Now to get to the desk and work on Maryborough so I can get it out of the way and start on your work.

God bless you! That's better than what I used to say to you, isn't it!

Ralph

ps. I will do all of this about the commission through my home account now. I like to keep them separate ralphwho@smartchat.net.au

Hi Ralph
Commissioned for the Grace Lutheran College Performing Arts Department to celebrate the 30th anniversary of the College, August 2007. Rachel Howley and Cleone Cooper conductors.

Do you normally put in the conductors names? I don't mind, I just didn't know that you did (maybe I should read the italics at the top of the scores more carefully!!)

Thanks for the mp3 - I'll show Cleo tomorrow. We looked through the scores and we're very excited. Cleo had one question but she was worried about bothering you about it...she was wondering about the ohs at 73 - are they intended to be individual ohs on each note or one long oh?

Yes, I'm well, not as sick as I was a few weeks ago thank goodness. Also, I've just found out that Brydie is going to be my supervisor - I'm meeting with her for the first time on Friday. Thanks for all the work you did with me up till now.

Hi Rachel,

Following my email about the attribution, what might you suggest?

Maybe:

Commissioned for the Grace Lutheran College Music Department by the College Board to celebrate the 30th anniversary of the College, August 2007. Rachel Howley and Cleo ??? conductors.

I need this ASAP please. Please send to home email.

Here's the mp3.

It's 'dinky' because the full sounds take up so much space. It will give you an idea though. It gives the voices and the band a chance to share the glory and to join to praise Him!!! Maybe the last verse could be put up on the screen and the audience could join in??

Hope all is well - not too sick????

Bless you

Ralph
